THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 5, 18[illegible]

News of To Day

We heard that Granger with a large Federal force was lately within ten miles of Mobile, threatening an attack upon that place though the news does not appear authentic enough to entitle it to much consideration. In all quarters the Union forces are very active, making incursions into rebel territory and doing great damage to the rebel cause. The forts about Wilmington seem to be impervious to the attack of our fleets, and we have no word of further progress against them. It is said that Unionists in Texas and North Carolina are taking steps to restore those States to the Union, and there seems nothing improbable in the supposition.

The people of Charleston are panic stricken and fleeing into the country for safety. Sherman has spread consternation by his successes. Savannah is no longer allied to the Southern Confederacy by any existing bond. A meeting of the citizens, presided over by the Mayor, has claimed all the privileges and immunities accorded by the President's proclamation to those returning to their allegiance and declined to stand as a conquered city. Indeed they seem rather to rejoice at the opportunity of renewing their loyalty, to build up their city once more and wind up by suggesting the propriety of a State Convention to decide on war or peace.

In the North Carolina Legislature the motion to take the peace resolutions off the table failed by ayes 19, noes 21, scarce more than a tie vote. Such votes are significant of changing public sentiment.

A spirited night attack upon our picket lines opposite Petersburg, resulted in a complete surprise and on the part of the enemy seems to have been one of the most brilliant small affairs that we have any account of, and as audacious as successful.

Another attempt to fit out a pirate in San Francisco has been nipped in the bud.

Gov Fenton has relieved Seymour of his executive duties and New York State once more is free from Democratic rule.

Perhaps the most significant word the Richmond press has furnished us yet, comes from the Sentinel, Jeff Davis' home organ, which, in view of being "overcome" by Federal arms, proposes to sell out the Confederacy and form a political alliance" with England, France, Spain or any other power before subjugation by the Yankee nation. They had better commence negotiating soon, or there won't be enough of the Sunny South left them for Maximilian to hanker after.

Barbarous Warfare

That portion of the press of all the loyal States which so amiably expounds the so called Democratic principles, has a deal to say about the barbarities that characterizes the progress of the Federal arms. Every story retailed by the rebel press—which by the by is characterized by a great superiority of fairness and decency over the rebel press in the free States—is repeated, retouched in coloring and vamped up for the purpose of imposing on the ignorance and credulity of the party.

There are some evils that cannot be controlled effectually, and that no doubt exist in connection with our armies despite all efforts to repress them, but compared with frequent occurrences on the rebel side, the conduct of this war on the part of our Government is characterized by tenderness and mercy. Christian and Sanitary Commissions minister to rebel wounded and afford aid to all who demand it, whatever relations they may bear as friend or foe. The prisoners captured by our armies are better clad and fed than they were when bearing arms against us, and all the amenities that war can allow are granted by our Government to those who fall into its hands.

The idea with us is to cultivate no animosity unnecessarily, and while the war is being prosecuted with vigor and determination, there is no unnecessary hardship worked even to the foe. The march of Sherman through Georgia is reported to have caused but little devastation to private property, more than the appropriation of the requisite supplies for the use of the army. Examine the other side from the beginning and we see that before the war began the South was guilty of many bloody acts. Persons suspected of sympathies not in accord with its institutions, were murdered in many parts of the cotton States and the cry of abolition was inducement enough to fill the mob with phrensy.

They were warring for an institution that was a relic of barbarism, and as a consequence the ferocity that ignorance breeds sufficed to carry out any desperate act [illegible]. The annals of the last three years will show that our prisoners in their hands have [illegible] the thousand while suffering from famine and exposure, many who would have surrendered have been butchered in cold blood, and the whole tone of the Southern press in unison with the words and action of the Southern people, has declared an endless and inveterate hate against the North that has never been in any shape met in kind or reciprocated. The time must come when the South will see and feel that these things are so, and that inveterate hate is wasted upon a Nation that will not accept of it, and that their future will not suffer if guided in sympathy with the principles of Free State civilization.

If the South rises out of its present gloomy condition and ever attains position and wealth again, it will be under the impulse of free labor, and the barbarism that has excited so much hate to the Union and to Northern men will melt away before the intelligence that will pervade it with the entrance of free labor into its fertile fields.

ASTORIA CHARITIES.—The ladies held a Sanitary Fair last Friday evening at the Masonic Hall building Astoria, and we hear they netted near $800 in coin for the Sanitary Commission. Last Monday evening they held a Sanitary Ball at the same place, and realized about $[illegible] more clear of expenses. Besides all this, they have some $[illegible] on hand, receipts for the cause before mentioned.

The Soldier's F[illegible] an [illegible] interesting little sheet, issued January 1st at Astoria, that we suppose we are indebted to the same fair and energetic source for [illegible] our table, received by last mail.

BANK ROBBERY AT ASTORIA.—[illegible] whose bank was reported robbed at Astoria some weeks since, has disappeared from there under circumstances that leave little doubt of his own dishonesty and that the story of the robbery was a pretense.

DATES TO JANUARY 3

Expedition against Mobile.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec 2[illegible].—[illegible] of the capture of Savannah caused great [illegible] among [illegible] people and corresponding [illegible] among rebels.

A expedition under General Granger [illegible] considerable force, landed at [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] reported [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] up the Pascagoula river [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to Mobile [illegible] a strong Union sentiment prevailed there.

NEW YORK, Jan [illegible].—The [illegible] from New Orleans with dates to the [illegible].

On the 19th General Granger was at [illegible] [illegible] three miles from Mobile, having [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] day [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] Mobile is expected [illegible] [illegible] from [illegible] [illegible] from Mobile [illegible] New Orleans [illegible] the speedy fall of Mobile [illegible].

The [illegible] [illegible] the Provost [illegible] the number of [illegible] [illegible] is large [illegible].

NEW YORK, Dec [illegible].—The Herald's New Orleans correspondent says the recent expeditions from [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] with great success, breaking up guerilla camps, capturing [illegible].

Twenty five hundred [illegible] [illegible] and Scott were threatening Baton Rouge on the [illegible].

Our Pickets Surprised on the Lines before Richmond.

WASHINGTON, Jan 2.—Information has been received from the Army of the Potomac that Saturday. About daylight that morning our pickets in that portion of the front line between [illegible] Howard and Wadsworth, now occupied by the [illegible] and [illegible] brigades of the 1st corps, were surprised by about [illegible] rebels who charged upon them without any previous warning, and drove them back with [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] killing [illegible] wounding three and capturing thirty. The rebels then gathered the blankets [illegible] knapsacks which our men left on the picket [illegible] then retired to their rails with [illegible]. The attack was so unexpected and the charge was [illegible] so quick, that the officer of [illegible] had not time to give orders to the men with a view to resist until they had fallen back up to the intrenchments. The assault was of the most [illegible] character, the enemy charging with [illegible] and firing rapidly as they advanced, very naturally inducing the belief that it was an attack in force. The fire maintained by our pickets during their retreat was ineffective. The enemy did not remain long enough for those behind the entrenchment to be aroused. Nothing further of interest has occurred [illegible] the past few days.

Hood's Retreat.

CINCINNATI, Dec 31.—The [illegible] Columbia, Tenn, correspondent thinks that the bulk of Hood's army is still north of the Tennessee river. He first attempted to strike the river at Decatur, Ala, but Granger [illegible] the place in advance and headed him off at the same time the gunboats came up the river and compelled him to abandon a point near Florence where he had pontoons. Owing to the bad condition of the roads developments will not be made very rapidly.

Attack on Wilmington.

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec 30.—Nearly all the steamers comprising a portion of the expedition fleet under the command of Gen. Butler which sailed from this port several weeks since have returned in safety.

The Santiago de Cuba and the [illegible] have been the only vessels attached to the Naval Fleet which have yet arrived from Wilmington. The latest advices received from Porter represents him as still subjecting Fort Fisher to a vigorous bombardment.

WASHINGTON, Dec 30.—There is no probability of a discontinuance of the bombardment of the Forts defending Wilmington by Porter unless he is ordered to do so by the Government.

Richmond and Petersburg.

The [illegible] City Point special dispatch dated Dec 29th says: A demonstration has been made in front of the Sixth Corps during the past few days indicating [illegible] extensive movements by the rebels. It is thought they wish to conceal the withdrawal of troops from the front of our position at Lynchburg or in that direction to operate against Sheridan, or probably to aid the forces at Wilmington or Charleston.

Butler and staff arrived at Aiken's Landing on the 28th December.

A lady on her way north from Richmond, reports affairs in that city as more gloomy than ever. Statements that the rebel cause was hopeless were openly made among the people. Southern politicians visit the army daily to encourage the soldiers.

Rebel Pirate Sea King.

The new rebel pirate Sea King, name changed to the Shenandoah, is reported actively at work on the Atlantic. Capt Wilson of the brig [illegible] reports the destruction of his vessel, also of the barques [illegible] and [illegible]. The ship [illegible] was captured and boarded by the Shenandoah. She carries four (4) [illegible] pounders, [illegible] guns, two [illegible] pounders and two 32-pounders [illegible].

Rebel Reports.

Richmond papers urgently demand that Gen Lee be made Commander in Chief of all the [illegible] armies or Dictator. In the Rebel House of Representatives, on the 24th, a resolution declaring the writ of habeas corpus ought not to be suspended was defeated by [illegible] majority. The Richmond Sentinel foresees a formidable campaign of the national arms against Charleston [illegible] prospect, and considers that the taking of Savannah by our troops and the occupation of the city by Sherman's army simply gives the enemy another point on our coast. The ocean front of Georgia will be exposed like the ocean front of North Carolina and Virginia to a species of [illegible] [illegible] that will annoy us without strengthening the [illegible]. It is probable however that a formidable attempt on Charleston would be an early consequence of the fall of Savannah. The enemy already holds a fort and position within a mile of Coosawatchie, a point on the Railroad between Charleston and Savannah, 43 miles from the latter city, and [illegible] from Charleston. We presume Hardee made no halt between Coosawatchie, but at once abandoned that section of railroad and placed himself where his communication with Charleston would be more secure.

NEW YORK, Dec 31.—The Richmond Examiner of the 29th says: The enemy shelled out our lines between Dunlap's and Petersburg, yesterday, with great vigor, but it had no effect. It is rumored that the Yankee troops are again crossing to the North bank of the James river, but they have made no appearance in front of the lines of Richmond.

It is reported that the enemy's vessels have appeared in York river and that some troops had been landed at the White House.

The Milton, North Carolina, Chronicle mentions that the Home Guard of that State [illegible] against the Union raiders at Bull's [illegible] refused to cross the State line.

The Richmond Examiner of the 29th says Beauregard reports that the column of [illegible] which went to Alabama [illegible] on the Gulf Railroad has returned to Savannah [illegible] attack was in that city on Wednesday. The same [illegible] says the country [illegible] of Richmond and Petersburg, [illegible] converted [illegible] which will be scarcely [illegible] till May. The [illegible] Wilmington is said to have [illegible] Three [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Vance [illegible] everybody that can bring a gun [illegible] behind the breastworks with their blankets [illegible] Wilmington.

The Richmond [illegible] says Grant will now have three months' truce. The rebels must raise a sufficient number of men to meet the increase. It calls upon Congress [illegible] to make a [illegible] for filling up the armies [illegible] the Yankee forces. It says the pressure [illegible] bears heavily on Lee.

The Mobile [illegible] [illegible] an account of Davidson's march into [illegible]. It created great alarm everywhere. The [illegible] conduct of the rebel [illegible] generally condemned.

Late Texas papers say that two-thirds of the people of the State favor a reconstruction.

Our Buildings and Improvements.—While it may be said, and [illegible] doubt with [illegible] truth, that Oregon and California are the [illegible] in the Union which [illegible] themselves [illegible] the [illegible] the amounts [illegible] show [illegible] city in Oregon [illegible] knowing that every [illegible] Oregon has a place [illegible] maps of the country. While [illegible] to bring the [illegible] town [illegible] city, and [illegible] efforts [illegible] place Portland [illegible] deserve [illegible]. The [illegible] as all—individually and collectively—and [illegible] is still [illegible] and the [illegible] has [illegible] an unprecedented [illegible] Oregon would stand forth like the [illegible] Plymouth [illegible] rolling like a fat duck on the [illegible] intercourse with the [illegible] able to yield. During the [illegible] year over a million and a half of [illegible] expended in [illegible] city of Portland for the [illegible] of material [illegible]. It is but a [illegible] or two since the [illegible] of trade has taken such a [illegible] with us and the [illegible] has made decided advantage in the appearance of the place. Of private dwellings we have to-day three hundred more than one year ago [illegible]. Some of these, in fact very many of them, are costly edifices, and ornaments to the city. Of the public buildings none [illegible] more creditable to [illegible] community than the church edifice of the Presbyterian Society, the block of stores built for Mr. Parrish, the Engine House of Company No. [illegible], the water front improvements of the O. S. N. Company, and an innumerable number of other works—not forgetting the Oregon Iron Works—that have been built and completed within a year. During the present year we shall have several similar improvements. The County Court House for one, at an expense of some $65,000; the new flouring mill of Mr. G. W. Vaughn, at perhaps not less than $15,000; and it would be hard to say how many blocks, vacant to-day, will have fine and costly edifices built upon them in the year just beginning. We are in the height of prosperity, and so long as we are favored by Providence and plenty of money, intend to prosecute our course.

A City Levee.—In view of the large amount of street improvements contemplated during the next and succeeding summers, materials for a great part of which will reasonably be expected by way of the Willamette river, and in view of the fact that suitable landings should be set apart and improved by the city, a petition is in circulation and was numerously signed by responsible citizens yesterday, asking the Common Council to authorize the grading and Macadamizing of Oak street, from Front street to the river edge, for such levee purposes. The city is in need of some such improvement. One by one the street approaches to the river have been given away for public improvements, and there is not a landing left for the convenience of the city. Such material as are wanted for our street work must necessarily be delivered from small crafts, and as the foot of Oak street is unfit for other navigable purposes than that of light draft boats, it seems perfectly proper that the Council should so legislate as to make it a desirable levee. In order that there may be no inconvenience attending the work on streets this summer, the matter of such improvement should be considered at an early day.

On Dit.—It is rumored that the steamboats John H. Couch, Cowlitz and Belle have been transferred from their former ownership and passed into the hands of a Company who are intending to establish a fast line between this city and Astoria and other points. The steamer Belle was brought to this city yesterday from Monticello, where she has been laid up for a long time, and the three boats delivered up.

Willamette Theatre.—A large audience witnessed the play of "Rob Roy" at Willamette Theatre last night with entire satisfaction. This evening is set apart for the benefit of Mrs. Getzler. "The Life of an Actress," in which Mrs. Getzler will assume the character of Violet, will be produced. She will also sing a favorite ballad and dance her celebrated "Spider Dance."

Fracture of the Jaw.—An altercation occurred on Tuesday between two men, near the boundary line of the county north west of this city, in which one of them, a Mr. Bonsers, had his jaw bone broken by the stroke of a missile in the hand of his antagonist. The wounded man was brought to Portland yesterday by the Fannie Troup and placed under treatment of Dr. Watkins. The aggressor fled to parts unknown.

Library Books.—One box of books arrived by the steamship Oregon yesterday from New York for the Mercantile Library. There has been some delay in selecting the books, but by this and the fluctuations in gold they were bought much cheaper than if they had been sent immediately.

Omission.—In the hurry caused by the crowd of Telegraphic matter on Tuesday, we omitted to acknowledge the receipt of compliments of the parties who were announced as made happy in the list of newly married in yesterday's paper.

The New Steamer.—The steamer Cascadilla has been finished up in excellent condition and is now advertised for freight, charter or transportation of stock to Astoria, Cascades and intermediate points, after the 1st of February.

Thanks.—The Printers partook of refreshments in the office of this establishment yesterday, the collation being sent from the Western Hotel, for which the popular proprietor has our thanks.

The Oregon.—The steamship Oregon, H. Johnston Commander, will leave this evening at 8 o'clock, for Astoria and San Francisco.

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF [illegible] at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store [illegible] Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 186[illegible], for a term of years, at which time there was no such [illegible] in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest, for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the said amount said Mayer agreed to pay. He has since sold the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it is to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

FURTHER OF THE HAYES [illegible]—ANOTHER ARREST MADE.—[illegible] our last issue an account [illegible] Hayes, charged with [illegible] enterprise similar to the [illegible]. New facts have come to light [illegible] that [illegible] to make [illegible] circumstances that led to the arrest. Mr Robert [illegible] one of the agents [illegible] went to Hayes Valley on Friday last [illegible] and to ascertain more fully the latter's secret he asked on what terms he could be let into the enterprise. Hayes said he would [illegible] for $7 500. Robertson had a certificate of deposit for that sum which he proposed to endorse to Hayes to be used in purchasing a vessel and in return was to receive a note from Hayes by way of acknowledgment. Before closing the bargain, however, Roberts [illegible] the [illegible] which Hayes professed to act and [illegible] an appointment on the next day (Saturday) at 12 o'clock in the Pavilion if he could [illegible] the arrangement. The appointment was punctually kept, the military authorities being advised and prepared as stated in our last. Robertson it will be seen and not Hayes was the party who had the certificate of deposit. On meeting Hayes the second day he asked him if he had the papers. Hayes replied—"They will be [illegible] in a few minutes, by the next train [illegible] the letters of marque from the rebel authorities." The arrest was soon after prematurely made in the manner heretofore described. Hayes, Finley and Robertson were all taken to Alcatraz, the two latter being released on Sunday. Another arrest was made by the Provost Guard yesterday in the person of John Cardinell, who is suspected of being an accomplice with Hayes. On producing a physician's certificate that his wife was lying at the point of death, and giving bonds in the amount required, Cardinell was released from custody until the examination which is to come off shortly before Gen McDowell. Whether the evidence shall prove sufficient to convict or not, Messrs Robertson and Finley are entitled to the thanks of all loyal and law abiding citizens for the skill and patriotism evinced by them in discovering and frustrating the latest scheme for a piratical raid upon the commerce of the Pacific.—S F Bulletin

THE TREATY OF PEACE BETWEEN THE ALLIED POWERS AND JAPAN.—The following are the terms of the Convention recently concluded between the Allied Powers and Japan:

1. Henceforward all ships of all countries passing through the Straits of Simonosaki shall be treated in a friendly manner. Ships shall be allowed to purchase coal, provisions, wood and water, and every other necessary. As the harbor of Simonosaki is subject to violent winds and currents, people suffering from a stress of weather shall be allowed to land without opposition.

2. Not only shall new forts not be built, but no repairs shall be made to the old ones, nor shall guns be mounted thereon.

3. Although the town of Simonosaki might have been burned for having fired on foreign ships, it was left standing. A ransom shall be paid for this, and in addition the whole expenses of the expedition shall be defrayed by the Prince, the sum to be settled by the foreign ministers at Jeddo.

4. This agreement being merely for the cessation of hostilities upon this occasion, it has nothing to do with questions affecting Chosin, which have to be settled between the Japanese government and the ministers of foreign powers.

It must be admitted that this agreement appears in every respect satisfactory, and no doubt can exist as to the complete sincerity of Chosin's submission.

The Inland Sea may be considered definitely opened, and the large trade which passed through it before that Prince established a blockade at the Simonosaki Straits will doubtless now again begin to flow in its accustomed channel.

ANOTHER REBEL PIRATE.—The London Index, (rebel organ), of the 19th November says:

We have much pleasure in being able to state that almost at the same time when the Florida was treacherously seized in Bahia harbor, the Confederate flag was hoisted on a new cruiser at least the equal of the Florida in armament, speed and general efficiency.

The Shenandoah starts upon her career with every prospect of emulating the fame of her predecessors. She is commanded by Lieut Waddell, Confederate States Navy, and a gallant staff of officers. Having received her crew and armament—everything, in fact, that constitutes her a belligerent vessel—on the high seas, far beyond any neutral jurisdiction, there can fortunately be no pretense of accusing her of any violation of municipal laws or international obligations. The name of the Sea King has been changed to Shenandoah.

ON THE WAY TO WASHINGTON.—The steamer Sierra Nevada, which arrived yesterday from Portland, brought to this city the Senator elect from Oregon, George H. Williams, who is on his way to Washington, and whose term begins on the 4th of March next. Senator Williams is a native of the Empire State, where he was educated and admitted to the bar. He removed to Fort Madison, Lee county, Iowa, in 1840, and in 1847 was elected one of the District Judges of that State, over Judge Miller, now of the Supreme Court, and J. W. Grimes, at present U S Senator from Iowa. He declined a re-election in 1852, and removed with his family to Oregon. He enjoys the confidence of the State which he is to represent in the Senate of the nation, and is credited by those who know him with the possession of integrity and ability. The same steamer that bears him East will probably take J. F. Gazley, the Electoral Messenger from Oregon, the Senators elect from Nevada, and the Electoral Messenger of California.—S F Bulletin

CALIFORNIA VETERAN REGIMENT REFUSED.—We stated a few days ago that Gov. Low and Provost Marshal General Mason had telegraphed to Washington offering a regiment of California veterans to form part of Gen Hancock's new Corps, it having been stated in the news dispatches that such a regiment would be accepted. A despatch was yesterday received at Headquarters, declining the proffered regiment, probably on account of the great expense necessarily involved in transporting soldiers from this coast to the seat of war. This will be a sore disappointment to many California veterans.—Bulletin

LONG TOM.—From a gentleman who accompanied Captain Rigdon to Richardson's precinct last week, we learn that the recruiting party were stigmatized by the Long Tomers as a set of "black abolitionists." Cheers were given for Jeff Davis, and Captain Rigdon was told that he could not get a man there, but if Jeff would send a recruiting officer there [illegible] under a flag they liked. Interesting people over there.—State Journal

THE RESULT.—Newell, of the Mountaineer, has gone to Washington on a lobbying expedition. His paper is observed to lack the [illegible] amount of billingsgate since his departure.—Statesman

We think it quite the reverse. Those in charge at present have not the requisite judgment to distinguish billingsgate from common sense.—Golden Age

THE PRESENTATION MANIA.—The latest form of the presentation mania [illegible] at Durham, England, when [illegible] Joseph Russell, who had [illegible] the responsible duties [illegible] the North [illegible], was presented with a [illegible].

Mr Nathan Pearce, son-in-law of Mr Knight, of Clark county, had his [illegible] badly shattered by the bursting of a [illegible] a few days ago. Mr P resides on Rush Island, a few miles below Vancouver, where the accident occurred.—Washington Standard

LIVE EXPORT.—We frequently have to record the importation of live stock [illegible], but [illegible] of commerce [illegible] the exports yesterday by the [illegible] to San Francisco we noticed the young live camel born on the Island.—[illegible]
